

fcc.....
instead of trying to limit traffic and local info on xm, think about this.....

most people that have xm are multi market types (professional travelers).....

we need the info to safely drive our 18 wheelers in and out of urban areas.....

mikeee

ps; yo powell, i want to put your smug self righteous ass on the unemployment line really bad, what gives you the right to regulate what i pay for.....
i think the republican leadership should sunset the fcc.....
